Ross Recreation Equipment Company Named Landscape Structures' Rep of the Year Team acknowledged for embracing new opportunities, growing their business Delano, Minn. (Feb. 3, 2016) – Landscape Structures Inc., a Delano, Minn.-based commercial playground equipment manufacturer, has named Ross Recreation Equipment Company, Inc., of Santa Rosa, Calif., 2015 Rep Organization of the Year. The award was presented to the Ross Recreation team last month during Landscape Structures' annual sales meeting in Minneapolis, Minn.

“Ross Recreation was named 2015 Rep Organization of the Year because they've grown their business year over year, and are a highly progressive organization focused on future opportunities,” said Pat Faust, president of Landscape Structures. “Ross Recreation has been a key LSI partner for more than 30 years, and we are proud to have their team bringing our playground and recreation solutions to Northern California and Oregon.”

After more than 42 years in business, Ross Recreation continues to lead the industry in designing and installing park and playground projects that demonstrate the highest level of quality, ingenuity, safety, accessibility and sustainability. The company works with a variety of communities throughout Northern California and Oregon to bring new playground concepts and innovative designs to parks, schools and communities. In addition, Ross Recreation continues to set the bar with the highest level of customer service and support for customers—both new and old. Their motto of 'Building Community' was consistently present throughout 2015.

Ross Recreation is one of nearly 50 independent sales organizations representing Landscape Structures worldwide. They have been the exclusive distributor of Landscape Structures park and playground equipment in Northern California and Oregon for more than 30 years.
